

BEYOND
CHINA & THE WORLD:
THE HEADLINES

The Important Role of Chinese Americans in U.S. History, Business, and Society

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2022 | 4:30 - 6:00 PM EST

ZOOM REGISTRATION BUTTON

In partnership with MSU faculty and the Committee of 100, a non-profit organization dedicated to advancing the inclusion of Chinese Americans across society, this event will provide an overview of Chinese American history in the US in an effort to combat anti-Asian hate and to raise awareness about the important role Chinese Americans have played in US history. The panelists will share their expertise, and the event will allow plenty of time for Q&A from the audience.

Samuel L. Stanley Jr.
President
Michigan State University

Naoko Wake
Director
APA Studies Program
Michigan State University

Charles Zinkowski
Director
Communications
Committee of 100

Ray Zeng
Director
Programs and Key Initiatives
Committee of 100

Andrea Louie
Professor
Department of Anthropology
Michigan State University

Anna-Pegler Gordon
Professor
James Madison College
Michigan State University

Presented in Partnership with:

Committee of 100

Office of China Programs
International Studies & Programs
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY